These requests are continuous in nature, and pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(e), You are required to timely amend each prior response to a request for production if You learn that the response is incomplete or incorrect in some material respect, or if any information or documents are hereafter identified, located or acquired. Such documents and things shall be produced as soon as is reasonably possible after they are located or obtained.

2. If You have a good faith objection to any Request or any part thereof, the specific nature of the objection and whether it applies to the entire Request or to a part of the Request shall be stated. If there is an objection to any part of a Request, then the part objected to shall be identified and documents responsive to the remaining unobjectionable part shall be produced.

3. Each request shall be answered based on Your entire knowledge, from all sources, after a reasonable and good faith inquiry has been made and a search has been conducted.

4. For any document or thing requested herein that has been destroyed, transferred or lost, You shall provide information sufficient to identify the contents of the document or thing, including the type of document or thing, general subject matter of the document or thing, the date (if applicable) of the document or thing, and information as is sufficient to identify the document for a subpoena duces tecum (such as the author, addressees, other recipients and the relationships of those persons), as well as a brief explanation of the circumstances (e.g., when, how, by whom, and why) surrounding the document’s destruction, transfer or loss, and any and all records pertaining to its destruction, transfer or loss.

5. If You know of the existence, past or present, of any document or thing called for in a Request, but such document or thing is not presently in Your possession, custody, or control, or in the possession, custody, or control of its agents, representatives, or attorneys, You shall so state in response to the Request, identify such document or thing in response to the Request, and identify the individual and/or entity in whose possession, custody, or control the document or thing was last known to reside.

6. If You contend that information responsive to any Request is incomplete, then You must provide all responsive information of which You are now aware.

7. In producing documents and things, You are to furnish all documents or things in Your possession, custody or control, or known or available to You, regardless of whether such documents or things are possessed directly by You or Your agents, representatives, or investigators. You are not obligated to produce documents or materials produced or provided to You by Danske or the Borrower.

8. In producing documents and things, You are to produce the original of each document or thing requested together with all non-identical copies and drafts of each document or thing. Any comment, notation, or marking appearing on any document, and not a part of the original, is to be considered a separate document, and any draft, preliminary form, or superseded version of any document is also to be considered a separate document.

9. Each document is to be produced along with all drafts, without abbreviation or redaction, in its entirety including attachments, enclosures, cover letters, memoranda, exhibits, and appendices. Documents attached to each other must not be separated.

10. Documents that are in paper form or that constitute other physical objects from which recorded information may be visually read, as well as audio or video tapes and similar recordings, should be produced in their original form or in copies that are exact duplicates of the originals.

11. You shall produce documents as they are maintained in the normal course of business:

- a) “and” as well as “or” shall each be construed conjunctively and disjunctively;
- b) words imparting the singular shall include the plural and vice versa, where appropriate; and
- c) words imparting the present tense shall also include all other tenses, where appropriate; and (d) “any” includes “all,” and “all” includes “any”.

13. If You assert that a document is subject to a claim of privilege, You shall produce a privilege log describing the document with sufficient particularity, including but not limited to a description of the document and the bases for Your assertions of privilege, to allow Danske to evaluate Your claims of privilege.

14. Unless otherwise stated, these Requests seek production of documents and communications created between January 13, 2009 to the present.
